In 2015, 193 United Nations Member States came together to agree on a worldwide pact on a scale never witnessed before in history – the 2030 Agenda and the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs). The Amity Foundation is committed to the SDGs, placing people and the planet at the center - at a global, regional, national and local level, leaving no one behind. This newsletter features the tale Journey of the SDGs.

To focus more on Amity’s work on the SDGs, we are updating our website content for a better navigation and experience. You can browse Amity’s work, according to the SDGs. Furthermore, you might visit our new About Us and What We Do section. Please contact us for your feedback.

The Amity Summer English Program (SEP) invites English speakers to volunteer in training Chinese teachers of English in less-developed parts of China. The SEP is an opportunity to spend a month in China, helping Chinese teachers many from rural areas to develop their English language skills.

Publication

The Chinese Theological Review 28 is published. It presents Chinese voices directly by providing translated theological essays, church statements, sermons, etc. CTR 28 focus on sinicization and in particular on the role of women in the Chinese Protestant Church.

Movie

How to build community in China’s newly urbanized areas? Xin Jiang Nan community introduces itself in this self-made music video. Amity Community Service Center fostering community engagement and associations, empowering residents, offer neighborly help and supporting the less fortunate.

Feature

Once upon a time, children lived happily with animals and witcheries in a walled garden called Arcadia..... The book ‘Fairy Tales for a Fairer World’ is a compass bestowed by the UN for children to learn about the SDGs. This compass tells stories which invert traditions while inherit them. Learn more about Amity adventures together with children in Nanjing in a journey towards the SDGs.

Amity News