MESSAGE OF 2018
Time truly flies. As we leave 2018 behind, we realize that we are faced with a world that is undergoing profound changes and becoming increasingly complex. Globally there is greater insecurity and domestically, we are experiencing more pressure due to China's slowing economy. In 2018, the Amity Foundation took stock of the circumstances, confronted the challenges, and turned crisis into opportunity. Amity adopted a host of new development initiatives in order that our annual targets and strategic goals would be met, pursuing new pathways for mutual development with friends and partners from all walks of life both in China and overseas.

The year began with a smooth leadership succession, ushering in a new Chair of the Board and a new General Secretary. This was followed by a number of “firsts” such as the holding of the “Rural Revitalization” Philanthropy Innovation Summit which created a new platform for exchange and cooperation for rural development. By launching the first “Amity Cup” for table tennis, we inaugurated a new model that combined, for the first time, philanthropy with table tennis as a sport in China. In the 2nd Heren-Amity Charity Forum, participants discussed incisive topics that included new ways of improving community governance and community life. Amity also signed new agreements for the setting up of special funds to support churches namely, Amity Spring Rain Charity Fund, Amity Rose Charity Fund, Chongshan Charity Fund and scaled up the Amity-Love Charity Fund. Churches’ capacity in fundraising and project management get improved through close cooperation with Amity. We also made progress in online fundraising, leading to increased donations, a larger number of partners and other breakthroughs. In 2018, Amity's total annual income reached RMB 320 million, of which online fundraising amounted to RMB 177 million.

2018 was a year with remarkable efforts on Amity’s globalization. Overseas humanitarian relief work continued to expand: Amity responded to Typhoon “Mangkhut” in the Philippines with financial support from Hong Kong Disaster Relief Fund (HKDRF) and implemented the relief work through Amity’s network of overseas partners. Apart from that, Amity worked in three countries including Nepal, Sri-Lanka and Ethiopia with government “Going Global” fund for the first time ever. Amity further reaffirmed the internationalization as one of her main strategies through implementation of the overseas projects.

For the past 33 years, Amity, has remained steadfast in its mission. By taking into account the larger picture and making careful assessments of our context, we follow an overall strategy and gear our efforts towards making human lives abundant, alleviating poverty, supporting quality education, fostering orphans, empowering the elderly and the challenged, as well as committing ourselves to global, sustainable development. At present, Amity is in its fourth decade of development. Given our strategy and development path, we actively embrace social change by promoting social innovation and implementing new technologies and ideas that respond to challenges and adapt to changes.

2019 represents a crucial year for the country in further deepening Reform and Opening-Up, for building an increasingly well-off society in all respects and for promoting poverty alleviation and rural revitalization. Amity believes that these goals will be achieved with the contribution and cooperation of all Chinese social organizations. In this era of openness and progress, we will strive to stimulate the vitality of philanthropy, promoting the sustainable and healthy development of the whole sector, promoting the overall progress of society, and finally contributing to the realization of the “Chinese Dream”.

Education program in Jinzhai County, Anhui Province
More than ten years ago, Xiao Xuan, a little infant at that time, lost her father. Her mother had to remarry for the sake of living and Xiao Xuan had no choice but to stay with her grandparents. The poor family barely made a living by farming in their own fields. However, despite of their poor living condition, her grandparents did everything they could to take good care of Xiao Xuan. Now, she has grown up to be a beautiful teenage girl, who lives in happiness with her grandparents.

Although her grandfather lives his whole life in suburban areas, he understands the importance of the family education. He often told interesting but meaningful stories to Xiao Xuan, wishing to inspire her and to teach her how to be a good person. Xiao Xuan’s grandfather believes that one can never give up just because of poverty and the sense of morality is of great importance to every individual. He wrote the sentence “Poor but with Dignity, Rich but...”
Grandpa Chen lives in Shanyuan Community, Maigaoqiao Sub-district in the city of Nanjing. Due to his physical disability and previous family conflicts, Grandpa Chen had to live alone. He was always reluctant to communicate with others. Because of his weird personality, the neighbors call him “weirdo”.

Grandpa Chen lived a hard life by himself. Because of his physical disability and lack of care from his family, Grandpa Chen could do nothing but appease his hunger with the cheapest food. The bad living condition of his apartment was another big issue. However, everything has been changed after the visit of the social workers from Amity Jollyhome Service Center.

These social workers tried to find out Grandpa Chen’s problems and urgent needs through face-to-face communication. At first, Grandpa Chen showed a little bit of reluctance. In his mind, their help was too good to be true. Nevertheless, Grandpa Chen was impressed by their sincerity and welcomed the regular visits of these warm-hearted social workers.

Later, social workers made an assessment of Grandpa Chen’s health condition, family situations and living environments. After improvement on his overall conditions, Grandpa Chen became more outgoing and optimistic towards his daily life. “Thank you so much. You all are good people.” He keeps showing his gratefulness to these social workers.

Grandpa Chen remembered that there was one time when he was caught with a heavy cold, he failed to take care of himself, lying helplessly in bed. Thanks to the social workers who regularly visited him, they found out Grandpa Chen’s poor health condition in time and gave him extra care on a daily basis. In the hope of providing Grandpa Chen with better living conditions, social workers from Amity Jollyhome Service Center contacted lawyers, local police and community staff. Finally, with all the help they could find, Grandpa Chen was sent to a local elderly care center and no longer had to worry about how to manage his daily life.

“Wow! Teacher Dong is here!” As soon as Dong arrived at the school, all children came and gathered around her, jumping and laughing with joy. The kids rushed to help her move the teaching tools out of car. “Thank you kids! But let me do it! Let me do it!” said Dong. Even with the help from the volunteers, Dong still chose to unload the tools herself. In her mind, the kids were too young to carry heavy items and these teaching tools must be handled with extra caution because they were very precious and can’t be broken.

“Let me help you, Ms. Dong!” Li, the principal, quickly carried the teaching device out of the car. Teacher Yang also offered to help. “Well, be careful gentlemen! These tools are too precious!” said Teacher Dong.

Although having no proprietary tools, the children got funds for their own textbooks. They love their books so much that some of the children were much into the textbooks before they begun the class.

Furthermore, professional trained teachers also give psychological counseling. Now, the program has expanded from one school to nearly 30 rural primary schools. Of course this makes Teacher Dong and other volunteers busier. However, they all find the opportunity meaningful. Each time they arrived at a new school, all principals, teachers and students would welcome them with cheers. A half-an-hour psychology class was not the only thing they brought to the schools. They have also brought opportunities for children to relieve emotions, to have someone to reply on, as well as to learn new methods to cope with real-life problems.
On 12th December, 2018, Amity Bakery received a special order from an old friend. This old friend is a big fan of Amity Bakery for years and always sees Amity Bakery’s products as tasty, healthy and dependable. Although, she lives far away from the downtown, she still purchases cakes from Amity Bakery even with traffic inconvenience.

December 12th, 2018 was the birthday of her daughter. With no hesitation, the old friend ordered a birthday cake from Amity Bakery. However, her address was 70 kilometers away from Amity Bakery. Estimated courier cost was over RMB 60, which accounted for one third of the price of the cake. Informed of the high courier cost, this old friend insisted on purchasing the cake. “It’s ok. I can pay the courier fee as long as it is an Amity cake.”

In spite of her insistence, the courier service declined her order for the far distance. Hearing the disappointed voice over the phone, Xu Minghao, a staff in Amity Bakery, decided to deliver the cake himself with his car.

Seeing Xu Minghao standing at the door with a fresh Amity cake, the old friend was more than happy. She extended her sincere gratitude to Xu Minghao and Amity. In the first sight of the cake, her daughter was overjoyed, clapping her hands all along.

My name is Ba Ding. Attending school has always been my dream. However, I am overage for school and that's why I had to stay at home. One day, I was informed that there was a school in Yushu of Qinghai Province, which accepted herdsmen's overage children. With no hesitation, I got on my way to follow my dream.

I love Yushu. Local people here are nice and sincere. We live in this beautiful heaven, where the clear sky and vast grasslands hold my breathing. However, climate here is unpleasant. We have to wait 10 months of freezing winter to have 2 months of warm summer. However, nothing can stop me from going to school. When I learn new knowledge in class, I always feel fulfilled with my life.

My classmates and I begin our study at 6 a.m. every day. Without any heater, the low temperature brings us more challenges in winter. I always look forward to having breakfast with my classmates in the school's dining hall. We shared food and enjoyed our meals. At that moment, I feel that they are not just classmates, but the dearest family members.

No longer hungry and no longer cold, after breakfast, we become more energetic and we are able to pay full attention to the class. I know this food and joyfulness come from Rende Foundation and a lot of warm-hearted strangers. They help us with the breakfast and bring us the taste of love and care. I know there are more and more people trying to help us by improving our living conditions. I will do whatever I can to help others when I grow up.
Liu Liu is a lovely boy with hearing impairment and cerebral palsy. Liu Liu’s favorite sport is riding a bicycle. However, due to disabilities, he never succeeds in the sport. One day, Liu Liu was sitting on a bike, making effort to try again. Yet, no matter how hard he tried, he could not make it go. When Liu Liu was going to burst into tears, a tandem bicycle stopped by. “Come on, Liu Liu! Get on my bike!” It was Ran Ran, one of Liu Liu’s classmates. Immediately, Liu Liu turned tears in smiles. Ran Ran and Liu Liu sat on tandem bicycle and rode around the playground. Liu Liu was overjoyed and laughing out loud. Watching the two children having fun on the playground, Liu Liu’s teacher felt moved and gratified.

Where are they? They are at Qi Cai Qiao Special Education Kindergarten in Quzhou, Zhejiang Province.

In the year of 2016, Amity Foundation launched an inclusive education program named Amity China-Finland Inclusive Education for Children with Hearing Difficulties. The program provided Quzhou Special Education School with an international education platform and vision. Children with hearing difficulties was allocated into regular classes, where comfortable and appropriate educational environment was provided. In this open and inclusive environment, with the positive guidance from professional teachers, there is only difference but no discrimination. Children with hearing difficulties have made remarkable progress in all aspects of skill-learning.

Amity believes that providing an inclusive environment for kids to play together and learn together is of great significance. This reflects our mission and vision towards a better society and a better future.
Bead stringing has always been a special course in the adult department of Amity Home of Blessings. Many students here have a strong interest in this class. Yuanyuan is one of them.

Using a fishing line to string colorful beads looks simple for most of us. However, it is not easy at all for the special students in Amity Home of Blessings. At first, Yuanyuan seemed very anxious and impatient as she could not do it. Her teacher came over and guided her. Yuanyuan stopped complaining, and slowly learned to watch how the teacher did it and imitate quietly. She seemed to understand that “slow work yields finer product”. As a student of Class 2 of the adult department, Yuanyuan had a wish, that is, to give her dad a small gift as the new year present for 2019.

Yuanyuan told the teacher her wish. The teacher smiled and volunteered to help. That’s how a cooperation began. On this day, the teacher brought her different colors of beads and put them on the desk. “Shall we start?” asked the teacher. Yuanyuan nodded her head. Difficult but restless, Yuanyuan tried her best to string the beads. One, two, three... After two days of hard work, a lively golden piggy was finally made from the beads. Looking at the golden piggy in hand, Yuanyuan was so excited, “This is for daddy! Daddy was born in a pig year!”

In the evening, Yuanyuan’s father received this new year gift from his daughter. He was moved. For him, it was not only joy, but also comfort.

My name is Chandrani Wickremesinghe. I live with my husband and our three kids in Ratnapura of Sri Lanka. As a family we make string hoppers and fast food.

In May 2017, big rain caused fierce flood. When the rains came there was only one place on higher
Over the past two years, Amity went to Sri Lanka and implemented multiple projects, including disaster relief, scholarship for blind children and livelihood developments. These projects, while met the demand of the locals, provided opportunities for trust, understanding and culture exchange between the people of the two countries. Amity believes that our work will lead to more diversified and friendly communication and deeper relationship between China and Sri Lanka.
Dr. Pan is a doctor in Chengbei Hospital, Huayuan County of Hunan Province. When Dr. Pan heard the news that Amity Foundation was recruiting volunteers for a community health-care program called “Daily 120”, she filled in her application form without hesitation.

The "Daily 120" Program targets at improving the quality of community healthcare, including two parts. One is to distribute emergency health kits for people in need while the other is to provide medical advice to the residents. Dr. Pan devoted herself throughout the entire procedure, giving adoptable suggestions on the composition of emergency kits and providing medical advice in the communities. However, they still faced difficulties in a Miao village. The villagers were mostly elderly speaking Miao dialect and few of them understand Mandarin. How could they communicate? When everybody was having a hard time, Dr. Pan came up with a solution. She reached out to one of her colleagues, Dr. Shi, who knew Miao dialect, and encouraged Dr. Shi to participate in the medical advice service. With the explanation of Dr. Shi, the local villagers understood Amity’s project and warmly welcomed the project.

During the medical consulting service, the two volunteer doctors became the most popular people in the village. They were surrounded by the old and the young who consulted about medical knowledge, the ways to use medicines, and demanded to measure the blood pressure. Dr. Shi was especially busy discussing medicine knowledge with villagers. Three hours passed, the two doctors were busy working without any rest. But they didn’t complain about their work intensity.

“Helping others is what I am here for!” said Dr. Pan. They thanked Amity Foundation for this precious opportunity and expressed their willingness to participate in more Amity activities.
Nanjing, 2018. It was hot in summer, even in the evening. In the ‘Suning ·Amity Football 1+1 Charity League Cup’ for third place, Taishan Primary School in Pukou district of Nanjing defeated their strong opponent: Gonghe Country No.1 Ethnic Boarding School in Qinghai Province by 3:1, winning the red copper ‘Hercules Cup’. Feng Tianye, a thin goalkeeper, did a fantastic job during the match. With his excellent goalkeeping skills, he became a ‘great wall’ in front of the Taishan Primary School’s goal. Losing only 5 balls in the entire match made him the convincing candidate for the ‘Golden Glove Award’.

Teammates commented that Tianye was the most talkative and active member of the team and what's more he also did well in school study. In order to gain support from his family on his football playing, he almost sacrificed all his free time besides studying and playing football. As long as he got some time, he would look for a quiet corner at the football field to study. “When I first started to play football, my study performance did get influenced so my family once opposed it a lot. To keep staying in the football field, I had to save time to balance schoolwork and my hobby.” Said Tianye. His effort did not put in vain. In the latest exam, he got the third place in class which proved to everyone that one’s dream would come true as long as he was willing to work hard.

Tianye said his favorite football stars were Cristiano Ronaldo and Manuel Neuer and his dream was to become a professional football player like them, bringing glory to the nation. Come on, Tianye! Success only belongs to those who are ready.
A test, 13 years ago, showed that Dao Hong was infected with AIDS. She had lost her husband to cancer not so long ago and her son was only two years old. She was distraught and depressed. “I should commit suicide with my son.” This thought was uppermost in her mind. But she finally gave up this intention. “Then I chose to live on,” said Dao Hong. “I started to take medicines and went for regular treatments and check-ups.

However, life is much more than just taking medicines. Society was not kind, she felt the whole world was staring at her and saying, ‘look, here is an AIDS patient’. Societal pressure flooded into Dao Hong’s life, making her desperate.

She thought to herself, “I can do nothing but farming and I have to raise my child.”

In 2012, Amity Foundation started an AIDS prevention program based on its community development in Dao Hong’s village. This was the most important turning point of her life.

In 2013, Dao Hong joined the Amity Farmer Development Association in the village. She took part in health training, underwent cultivation skills training, and undertook site visits. With the support from county CDC and village doctors, Amity AIDS prevention program also set up support groups for local AIDS patients. They invited professional medical workers to provide medical intervention to the group members regularly. Amity staff encouraged group members to share their treatment experiences, life stories and spiritual journeys. Activities and sharing made Dao Hong believe that as long as she took medicines on time and received treatments, she was just like any other normal person. She desired to raise chickens and do farm work to support her family and herself.

In 2016, with the support of Amity Foundation and local CDC, Dao Hong established a small women’s health center, “as an Amity volunteer, I assisted the CDC in educating high risk population and suggested them apply for health certificates.” Sometimes some people, such as demimonde, were hard to be convinced, Dao Hong would ‘stand in their shoes’: “you will have chance to make money only if you take care of yourself!”

In addition, the CDC provides volunteer compensation to her every month which made her feel secure and enable her to save herself and others.

INDENPENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

TO THE MEMBERS OF AMITY FOUNDATION, HONG KONG
(incorporated in Hong Kong with limited liability by guarantee)

Opinion

We have audited the financial statements of Amity Foundation, Hong Kong ("the Association") set out on pages 5 to 13, which comprise the statement of financial position as at 31 December 2018, and the income statement for the year then ended, and notes to the financial statements, including a summary of significant accounting policies.

In our opinion, the financial statements of the Association are prepared, in all material respects, in accordance with the Hong Kong Small and Medium-sized Entity Financial Reporting Standard ("SMEFRS") issued by the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants ("HKICPA") and have been properly prepared in compliance with the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with Hong Kong Standards on Auditing ("HKSAs") and with reference to Practice Note 900 (Revised), Audit of Financial Statements Prepared in Accordance with the Small and Medium-sized Entity Financial Reporting Standard issued by the HKICPA. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Association in accordance with the HKICPA's Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants ("the Code"), and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the Code. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Responsibilities of Directors and Those Charged with Governance for the Financial Statements

The directors are responsible for the preparation of the financial statements in accordance with the SMEFRS issued by the HKICPA and the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance, and for such internal control as the directors determine is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, the directors are responsible for assessing the Association's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the directors either intend to liquidate the Association or to cease operations, or have no realistic alternative but to do so.

Those charged with governance are responsible for overseeing the Association's financial reporting process.
Auditor’s Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor’s report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with HKSAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

Emphasis of matters

Without qualifying our opinion, we draw attention to note 1 to the financial statements which indicates that the Association incurred a net loss of HK$694,234 during the year ended 31 December 2018. This condition, along with other matters as set forth in note 1, indicate the existence of a material uncertainty which may cast significant doubt about the Association’s ability to continue as a going concern.
